

“Baby Don't Give Up”

Written by Emanuel “EJ” Johnson

Baby, we've been going through a lot of changes lately
But I'm asking you for the sake of love
Please, let's give it one more try...check it out

Baby don't give up
Please give it one more try
Baby don't give up
Please don't you say good bye

Baby I mistreated you
I did it for so long
I really really hurt you
I was wrong

I said a lot of things I shouldn't have said
I must have been out of my head
I don't know baby what came over me

Baby don't give up
Please give it one more try
Baby don't give up
Please don't you say good bye

Sometimes in a relationship
There is bad and good
And things don't always work out
Like they should

But baby hear my prayer from above
Come back to me baby for the sake of love
Baby I promise this time I'll be good

Baby don't give up
Please give it one more try
Baby don't give up
Please don't you say good bye

Please forgive me, forgive me baby
Please forgive me, forgive me baby
Forgive me girl
I didn't mean baby
Won't you please

I didn't mean it baby
I didn't mean to break your heart
Baby you know
That I want you, that I need you
I've got to have you girl
Please, please give it one more try

Baby please don't you say good bye
Don't you say good bye
Please
