

“Cause I Believe”

Written by Emanuel “EJ” Johnson

Walking around with my head in a cloud
Thinking about you all the time
Been this way since the that I met you
And I'm hoping baby that you will be mine

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me oh baby
Girl we were meant to be
Lovers can't you see

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me baby
Girl we were meant to be
In love so heavenly

Walking around with my head in a daze
Nothing but you on my mind
You're the kind of girl I need to know better yeah
And I'm hoping baby that you will be mine

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me oh baby
Girl we were meant to be
Lovers can't you see

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me baby
Girl we were meant to be
In love so heavenly

So much confusion
In this world today
Why don't you stop what you're doing
And come on over my way

We've all been through changes
Lord knows I've had a few
So why don't we get together
And take a chance on me and you

Walking around with my head in a cloud
Nothing but you on my mind
I finally realize you're the one that I love
And I'm hoping baby that you will be mine

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me oh baby
Girl we were meant to be
Lovers can't you see

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me baby
Girl we were meant to be
In love so heavenly

Wait a minute,
Do you believe me baby

Do you believe

Do you, hey baby
I need to know that right now

You and me and love makes three
Together forever heavenly
You and me and love makes three
Together forever, hey hey hey

Cause I believe in you
Will you believe in me baby
Girl we were meant to be
In love so heavenly
