

“Spending the Night”

Written by Emanuel “EJ” Johnson

When I've had a hard day
And things aren't going my way
Seems like nothing's going right for me

I'm going to take me a ride
Come this here Friday night
And with my baby is where I'm gonna be

Cause I'll be
Spending the night with my baby
Spending the night with my love
Spending the babht with my baby
She's the only one that I'm thinking of

And when I get there
A true love we're gonna share
You see my baby, she's there waiting for me

We'll make love through the night
And then we'll sleep 'til morning light
And happiness is what I'll feel

Cause I'll be
Spending the night with my baby
Spending the night with my girl
Spending the babht with my baby
She's the only one I want in my world

Cause I'll be
Spending the night with my baby
She makes me feel so free
Spending the babht with my baby
And I'll cherish her 'til eternity

Ooh, it's gonna be alright
Can't wait 'til Friday
She's the one for me
And I'll cherish her 'til eternity
